PATI Information Statement

Name of Public Authority: Bermuda National Library Committee

Introduction

The general purpose of the Public Access to Information Act (2010) is to make information (not subject to exemptions) accessible to the public in order to increase transparency and accountability about the department's administration and decision-making processes.

This information statement has been issued to provide the public with an understanding of the information generated by the Bermuda National Library Committee and how accessible information may be obtained regarding the decision-making processes and operations of the Committee.

This statement summarises the functions and services of this Committee and the records types generated in the performance of mandated duties and managerially identified objectives.

Section A: Structure, Organization and Legislation [s5(1)a]

The Minister shall by notice in the Gazette appoint annually a committee to be called the Bermuda National Library Committee which shall consist of such number of persons being not less than five nor more than eight as the Minister may determine:

Two of the members of the Committee shall be persons selected by the Corporation, but so that the selection by the Corporation for that purpose of any person who is not a member of the Corporation shall be subject to the approval of that person by the Minister.

Any person appointed to be a member of the Bermuda National Library Committee shall hold office during the Minister's pleasure and unless his appointment is earlier terminated it shall be deemed to terminate one year from the date upon which such appointment took effect.

There shall be a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman of the Bermuda National Library Committee each of whom shall be appointed by the Minister from among the members of the Bermuda National Library Committee and each of whom shall hold office as such during the Minister's pleasure:

Provided that the Bermuda National Library Committee shall be deemed to be properly constituted notwithstanding that there is a vacancy in the office of Chairman or Deputy Chairman or of any member.

Fees shall be paid to members of the Bermuda National Library Committee in accordance with the Government Authorities (Fees) Act 1971 [title 14 item 6].
