Interpretation

2 In this Notice—

“cash” means coins and bank notes in any currency;

“negotiable instrument” means—

- (a) monetary instruments (including cheques, travellers cheques, promissory notes and money orders) that are either in bearer form, endorsed without restriction, made out to a fictitious payee, or otherwise in such form that the title thereto passes upon delivery; and
- (b) incomplete monetary instruments including cheques, travellers cheques, promissory notes and money orders signed, but with the payee’s name omitted.

Non-application of this Notice

3 This Notice does not apply to a person who is entering, importing or exporting cash or a negotiable instrument of heading 98.02 (accompanied personal goods) of the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act 1970.

Requirement to declare cash or a negotiable instrument

4 Subject to paragraph 3, every person entering, importing or exporting cash or a negotiable instrument is required to make the declaration prescribed in the following paragraphs.

Form, contents and particulars of declaration

5 The declaration for a person entering, importing or exporting cash or a negotiable instrument shall be—

- (a) made in writing in Customs Form 10 published in Government Notice No. 573 on the 21st day of July, 2000; and
- (b) completed in accordance with the instructions in Schedule 1.

Time and manner of making declaration

6 (1) The importer of any cash or a negotiable instrument shall within three days after its importation, deliver to the Collector of Customs the declaration required by this Notice.

(2) A person intending to export any cash or a negotiable instruments shall, before the time that cash or a negotiable instrument is loaded or otherwise taken on board a vessel or aircraft, deliver to the Collector of Customs the declaration required by this Notice.

(3) Every person who is required to make a declaration by this Notice shall deliver that declaration at the Hamilton Long Room, Custom House, 40 Front Street, Hamilton, during the days and hours appointed for opening by the Collector of Customs.

SCHEDULE 1

(Paragraph 9)

CUSTOMS FORM 10 (BERMUDA CUSTOMS DECLARATION (BCD)) GENERAL DESCRIPTION AND COMPLETION INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The BCD consists of a header sheet and a continuation sheet. The header sheet is divided into two sections: the header level (fields 1 through 14) and the record level, consisting of record No. 001 (fields 15 through 28). The BCD continuation sheet is divided into three separate records. Continuation sheets shall only be used where the BCD covers cash or negotiable instruments classifiable to more than one tariff code. Continuation sheets shall be presented together with one header sheet.

The information entered at the header level shall relate to all the cash and negotiable instruments declared on a BCD. The information entered in any particular record of a BCD shall concern only the cash or negotiable instruments declared in that record.

Subject to the following provisions, cash and negotiable instruments of the same tariff code shall be declared in aggregate in the same record of a BCD. A separate record shall be completed for cash and negotiable instruments of different tariff codes. For example if a consignment of cash or negotiable instruments consists of banknotes, coin and bearer bonds, each of these three different kinds of monetary instrument shall be declared on a separate record of a BCD.

A negotiable instrument with no amount indicated and no named payee shall be declared in aggregate in the same record of a BCD with like negotiable instruments.

A negotiable instrument with an amount indicated and no named payee shall be declared in aggregate in the same record of a BCD with like negotiable instruments.

A negotiable instrument with a named payee shall be declared in aggregate in the same record of a BCD, with negotiable instruments with the same payee, whether or not there is an amount indicated.
